

THE CHATHAM

Stone Ridge
ESTATES

HOLDEN, MASSACHUSETTS

The most luxurious and largest of the four home styles at almost 2,000 square feet in size, is an end unit type that provides a front or side entry two car garage option. It is also the only unit type that includes a separate shower and Jacuzzi/whirlpool combination off of the naturally illuminated master bedroom on the first floor.

This unit also provides a separate small breakfast area from the dining room and the option of an enclosed sun room or den instead of a deck, further increasing the unit size to roughly 2,150 square feet. This unit design offers a truly functional loft area on the second floor with many nooks for attic storage space.
