

THE NANTUCKET

Stone Ridge
ESTATES

HOLDEN, MASSACHUSETTS

At 1910 square feet this condominium unit is the only type that offers the garage under option with a unique two story high open foyer feature. The Nantucket is designed as part of a duplex that is limited to only the first four buyers. As you come up the staircase, this home provides an elegant 14 by 22 living room, the largest among the four unit types offered, with cathedral ceilings and a fireplace.

Along with the living room, the floor also houses the kitchen, dining room, full bathroom and the master bedroom, that can be converted to a play or entertainment area if desired as the two additional bedrooms with a full bath found on the upper level is sufficient.

This convenient design is ideal for those buyers seeking extra privacy.
